From Our Rector

Spring it seems has finally decided to show its face. And I must say it is a welcome sight to see the leaves start to bud on the trees and the flowers adorn the pots and gardens.

This Easter season has been full this year so far. Our visit from Bishop Ian and the confirmation of our young people filled our post Easter church with joy and grace. I was especially proud of our young people and their embracing of their Christian identity. There are many competing voices in the world telling us what it means to be Christian and it is important for a young people to identify their way of being members of the church. It is important for us all to recognize how we are touched by the Grace of God and Community. I pray that the bonds formed by all our young people to our church will let them know that they have a home to come to whenever they need. I pray too that we continue to foster a congregation and community where worship and fellowship help add meaning and graceful enrichment to people's lives. I see it in the warmth we hold for each other and in the service that we do and in the ministries we support. May we continue to be blessed in our blessing of those whom we touch in our lives.

I am beginning to notice the rhythm that this congregation seems to follow. We are in that lovely Spring period before Summer vacations and after Spring breaks. We don't have to recover from Apple Festivals or prepare or recover from the holidays, and we have Easter and Pentecost to frame and bolster our worship services. I would like to take advantage of this time to plan for the slower times or the more hectic times. I would like to plant seeds of the Spirit to grow.

I would like to put a call out to the confirmands from this year and last year to help form the nucleus of a youth group here at Christ Church. I've been in conversation with the rector of Trinity Trumbull and they have a bunch of folks your age too and perhaps we can get together as a combined parish starting before school starts again this August. But before that I'd like to follow-up and have a get together – Perhaps a trek to see Jurassic World when it comes out in the middle of June – Let me know and discuss it with me and your families this coming month. Look for emails and sign-ups during May. Parents we'll be needing a couple of you too to help with transportation and other parent stuff.

This Summer as I've mentioned during announcements we'll be having a regular Wednesday evening barbeque dinner night with the rector. That means on Wednesday nights you don't have to cook. I'll pull out my Webber and have Hamburgers, Hot Dogs, potato salad, chips and drinks for a nominal cost. It will be a chance to fellowship and not cook one day during the week. We'll probably start this up in the middle of June as well so watch the weekly bulletins and parish emails. There will be a couple of weeks off when Maggie and I head out for vacation and we'll be inside if the weather is troublesome.

I'd also like to ask you to look around you these next few weeks. If you think you are missing someone call them and ask them how they are doing. I've noticed a few folks are not coming as regularly or not at all these past few months. I've reached out where I can; however, this is all of our community. I know we care and you care. I see it in how you're there for each other during troubled times, but what of the normal just busy times when we can so easily get waylaid by life. Help me reach out to our friends, let me know if you've talked to those who aren't coming so regularly. Invite them back. Let them know they are missed. Sometimes we get burnt out in our busy lives and this church can be a place of refuge and of service. Taking a break from the one doesn't mean you have to take a break from the other.

As we look at where we want to go and grow as a community in the coming years and months we need to be able to give each other space. This can sometimes be a scary and tricky thing. Not seeing someone can make us feel disconnected from them and them from us. We can let folks know the light is still on for them, that the welcome table is still set and there isn't anyone here who won't be happy to see them sitting once more in our worship services or at our fellowship events.

This brings me to a topic which I raised in the last newsletter. As a vestry team we are going to be working on renewing our strategic plan. This will help us shape the decisions we make as a community and a leadership team in the years to come. As we've been blessed by gifts and bequests over the past year it will help us determine the wise use of our resources and to bring projects and proposals to the community which reflect who we are as a faith community in Trumbull.

Along those lines it is evident that as we cannot minister to all by ourselves, nor do we, and as there are three Episcopal congregations in Trumbull we will be reaching out to share ministries and resources such as in a joint youth group. We will also most probably be sharing clerical coverage for vacation periods with Grace Church this Summer the way that has been done in the past. This helps both communities and builds connections. Helping cover supply clergy costs by stepping up and helping during vacations not only cross pollinates it shows we care for our sister congregations too. Bishop Ian and the ECCT have the TREC (Reimagining the Episcopal Church in Connecticut) to help them shape the ECCT as a whole. It would behoove us to be proactive in reimagining the Episcopal Church in Trumbull before someone reimagines it for us.

I know the coming weeks will fly by and then Summer will be upon us. We tend to have fewer people in the Summer and in the past there have been a different schedule for the Summer months. Talk to me about what you'd like to see. I'm open to leaving things as they are or changing the hours as needed. I'd also like to try some outside services, weather permitting again this year. When Labor Day hits I know too that we as a congregation will be heads down preparing for the Apple Festival the last weekend in September. I would like to ask for two volunteers to head up the committee and oversee the people doing the work. Overseeing means just that - overseeing not doing all the work - it means communicating, communicating, and communicating. Two persons could share the load of organizing this year. Please step up I know those who've done it in the past couple years deserve a break. See me after service or call or email me. I'll let everyone know when we've got a core group.

During this past year I've seen how each of you have stepped up and tried new things, how you've all pitched in. It's time to put on new "hats" and help us row this boat to the new shores. It's time to ask ourselves where we want to set ashore or how comfortable we feel venturing into new waters. I trust in you all and in the Holy Spirit to show us the way. We've been and continue to be blessed beyond imagining. I thank God every day for the opportunity to walk with you all on path we tread.

May Almighty God bless and keep you - in Jesus name I pray.

Rob+

Deacon Matters

Some random thoughts I'm sharing from my blog – "A Closer Walk." In quiet moments – reflection along with prayer can give insight to questions we may ask ourselves from time to time. Here are some of my answers to questions I've reflected on.

It Begins With Me

The bell rings loudest in your own home.
~ Yoruba proverb

As you look around the community, society, the world, you probably see many things you would like to change. Recent changes in my life have raised my consciousness to a higher level and created a deeper desire to make a difference in the lives of others. My path is growing stronger toward a commitment for change.

Injustice, inequality, hatred and poverty probably disturb you. They do me. We may be angered by the lack of respect and insensitivity to people and their needs creating an impetus for us wanting to speak out and take action -- to strike out and make changes happen, but what comes to mind is that God works from the inside out. I believe we must first look within ourselves to eliminate the fear, the anger, the imbalance in our lives. Then and only then can we move forward to create peacefully and powerfully the changes needed in the world.

The world I want begins with ME.
The world you want begins with YOU!

Who is God? Look at Me.

If I want to know who God is, I look at me.

One good way to know if something is working is to actually see it work. No matter what your philosophy, regardless how much you believe it, if it does not produce, it is worthless. I believe God is the same way. We can talk about Him, sing about Him, pray to Him, for Him and about Him, but if His glory is not produced in our lives, what are we really saying? The only way for God to be seen is through our lives. Our lives must reflect all the things we say God is. We are His hands, feet, eyes and voice. Our lives reflect who and what God is. Are we living a happy life? Are we thinking practical thoughts? The only way for God to demonstrate who He is, is for us to do it for Him. We must demonstrate what we know about God in the way we think, talk, walk and live. God is peace. God is strength. God is mercy. God is forgiving. God is all knowing, all powerful, abundant, radiant life. God is love. To know God is to be like Him. All else is a figment of our imagination.

Deacon Diane

Confirmation at Christ Church Tashua

On Sunday, April 12th, four of our parish youth were confirmed at Christ Church Tashua with Bishop Ian Douglas presiding. We had one service that morning with an extended Coffee Hour in our undercroft to celebrate the confirmands and Bishop Ian's visit.

Our 2015 confirmation class consisted of Eliane Baijal, Chandler Green, William Holmes, Matthew Mitola and Casey Rossel. Matt wasn't able to attend on that Sunday and will be confirmed soon. Here are a couple of pictures from that special day with our confirmands, Bishop Ian, Father Rob and Deacon Diane...

Parish Garden - we made great strides last year in adding to our parish garden. We will soon be able to see the fruits of our labor as the weather warms up and spring fully arrives. Our flowers and bushes will be blooming from now through the summer. What a pretty sight it will be!

But as any gardener knows, the work is never really done... If you would like help add to our garden this year, we welcome your contributions! Remember, many of our flowers are cut and used as altar flowers too. Would you consider buying flowers or plants for our gardens? It is helpful to have donations of at least 2-3 of the same plant so we can group them together or space them out.

Here are some suggestions:

Spring:

Daffodils

Pulmonaria

Lily of the valley

Summer:

Day Lilies

Hostas (small)

Astilbe

The Sew Caring Quilters have been very busy these past few months.

32 lap quilts were completed and delivered to the Bridgeport Health Center and

13 baby quilts were given to Hope Line in Bridgeport.

Many pillowcases have been made for Paul Newman's Hole in the Wall
Gang Camp.

Thank you ECW for supporting our mission!!

The race proceeds go to the Bishops' Fund for Children, which provides grants to programs that benefit at-risk children throughout Connecticut. It's a smaller race with lots of prizes and team spirit, so it's a fun 5K for all levels of runners. There is also a kids' fun run that starts and finishes prior to the 5K start. Awards are given to the top 3 finishers in each age category.

The Bishops' 5K is on May 9 and begins and ends at Webster Hill Elementary School, 125 Webster Hill Blvd., West Hartford. Register on-line at: <http://www.active.com/west-hartford-ct/running/races/bishops-5k-2015>. Or register at the race. It's open to all, so ask your friends, family and fellow parishioners to run or walk with you or be there to cheer you on!

CHORAL EVENSONG AT SAINT PAUL'S FAIRFIELD ~ MAY 3rd

Sunday afternoon, May 3 at 5 p.m. the walls of St. Paul's Episcopal Church on the Town Hall Green in Fairfield will echo with the music of prayer and praise, following the finest traditions of the world-wide Anglican communion. The service is designed to give everyone, regardless of religious background (or no background) the chance to surround themselves in the beauty of music sung by one of Connecticut's premiere church choirs, to leave behind cares of the world and have a little space for quiet contemplation and reflection. Everyone is welcome. There is no admission charge and parking is available on the surrounding streets and in the adjacent Town Hall Parking lot.

An English Tea in the parish hall will precede the service at 4 p.m., and will benefit the choir's upcoming 2016 tour of Great Britain.

The music for the service includes a setting of the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, composed by Herbert Howells for the choir of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, and Edward Elgar's large scale anthem Give unto the Lord, also composed for performance in St. Paul's Cathedral, in 1914. Other music will be by Bernard Rose and Bob Chilcott. Joseph Ripka will play the organ and John Abdenour will conduct the choir. The church's rector, the Rev. Judith Rhodes, will lead the service.

The 50-voice St. Paul's Choir is based on the English cathedral model, with boy and girl trebles singing together with adult altos, tenors and basses. The choir has toured England four times, sung in Carnegie Hall three times, and sung services in major Episcopal churches in New York City, and has acquired a national reputation for excellence.

Spring Evensong is one of a series of Sunday afternoon services St. Paul's offers throughout the year. These services feature simple worship formats with music of unusual richness and beauty, inviting those in attendance to peacefully enter into the presence of holiness.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church is located at 661 Old Post Road, Fairfield, Connecticut, on the Town Hall Green, and is handicapped-accessible.

Sole Hope Shoe Cutting Party

Hosted by

St. Peter's on The Green

175 Old Tannery Road / Monroe

(203) 268-4265

Sunday, May 3rd, 3:00-6:00 p.m.

Give your old jeans new purpose by bringing them to this community-wide event benefitting Sole Hope, an organization which provides shoes and foot care to children in Uganda. Everyone will help cut the jeans into shoe patterns. Snacks provided!

For more information contact Rev. Hurt Huber, Rector - revkjh@att.net.

St. Peter's on the Green in Monroe is one of three Episcopal churches in Connecticut (in collaboration with a recent Episcopal Youth in Connecticut effort) who will host shoe cutting parties across Connecticut, to benefit Sole Hope, an organization which provides shoes to people in Uganda who suffer from "jiggers," a debilitating, yet preventable condition. All are invited to be part of the Shoe Cutting Party, so bring the youth of your parish, their / your family and friends, co-workers, teammates or classmates.

If you are not up to cutting shoes-consider helping with a collection of medical supplies headed to Uganda with our shoe pieces. Sole Hope treats the feet of those they serve before the children receive their shoes. Needed supplies are: clean, new or used denim jeans, thin plastic folders (like the ones we use for school, which will be used for the heels), large safety pins, surgical gloves, cotton balls, antibiotic cream (such as Neosporin), rolled gauze, band-aids, stickers for children.

If you or your parish would rather write a check, the real cost of getting ONE pair of shoes from Connecticut to Uganda is about $10 per pair. This includes shipping from North Carolina to Uganda, purchasing the sole supplies, paying the shoemakers and tailors, and purchasing some medical supplies necessary for the jigger removals that happen before the children get their new shoes.

If your parish or organization is interested in hosting a Sole Hope Shoe Cutting Party, please visit the Sole Hope website or contact Don Burr at dburr@churchchurcheastnorwalk.org. You may follow the adventures of Episcopal Youth in Connecticut on Facebook.

Please RSVP so the organizers know how many people to expect. If your parish or organization is interested in hosting a Sole Hope Shoe Cutting Party, please visit the Sole Hope website or contact Don Burr at dburr@churchchurcheastnorwalk.org.

A Note from St. John's Food Pantry...

How does a person say Thank You? We at the St. John's Food Pantry were blessed with this gift by one of our clients this past Saturday. Who says a person has nothing to give? He created this picture which we will proudly hang in the "Food Pantry." Little things mean so much. We are honored.

A regular food pantry guest touched our hearts yesterday with a thank you. There is no question our mission and ministry makes a difference.

Our client wrote these words himself and then colored the pictures he drew with pencils. God bless him.

Thank you to the parishioners of Christ Church Tashua for all of your generous donations. Your acts of kindness make a difference every day.

Christ Church Tashua Vestry Meeting Policy

Parishioners are welcome to attend Vestry meetings if they have a particular concern, idea or proposal that should be brought to the attention of the Vestry. A written request should be made to one of the Vestry officers or the Rector a week in advance for inclusion on the meeting agenda, along with any documentation to be reviewed in advance of the meeting. Approximately the first 15 minutes of the next Vestry meeting will then be set aside to address the parishioner's concerns, ideas or proposals. Otherwise, in the interest of covering all of the items on the agenda in a timely way, Vestry meetings are generally closed to parishioners.
